

THURSDAY EVE., NOV. 15, 1883.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To Whom Address ALL COMMUNICATIONS

As Christmas time comes creeping on
Perhaps you'd like to know
In buying candy for the kids,
Just where you should go.
With due respect, and not a word
Against any other firms,
You'll find the best at Chenoweth's—
The kind that knocks the worms.

See notice of watch lost elsewhere.

A BUILDING company has been formed at Manchester.

The days now are ten hours and twelve minutes in length.

The dark-lantern gentry are now known as "moonlight mechanics."

The public building, at Frankfort, is to be built of stone instead of brick.

A SOAP factory with $75,000 capital is the latest air castle projected at Lexington.

Three new houses are building in Chester. Property there has advanced somewhat in price lately.

You want to be a City Councilman, do you—well, how do you stand on the hog question? That is what a good many people want to know.

HOLIDAY advertisers are invited to use the columns of the BULLETIN. Its wide circulation among the best people of the city and county makes it a very desirable medium.

MR. JOHN W. CARTMELL, one of our most active and industrious young gentlemen, is a candidate for City Assessor. His card of announcement is printed elsewhere.

If the State Capital has to be removed we modestly suggest that it be brought to Maysville, the liveliest most enterprising, and in every respect the best town in the State.

A DANCE given last night, by Miss Anna Breen, at her residence, in East Maysville, was attended by many friends, all of whom report having very much enjoyed themselves.

MR. AND MRS. F. M. CHANFRAU, supported by Taylors select company, will appear at the Opera House next Monday and Tuesday evenings, and at a ladies' matinee Tuesday afternoon. Seats may be reserved at Taylor's news depot.

THERE were four more additions to the Methodist Church, South, last night at the revival. The audiences are large and attentive. The sermon last night from the text "How long halt ye between two opinions?" was listened to with profound attention. Come to-night.

MR. GAY STRODE is the fortunate possessor of a handsome white swan that was killed a day or two ago at the mouth of Cabin Creek. It is four feet seven inches in length and six feet nine inches from the end of one wing to the other. It is to be stuffed and placed in his collection of native birds.

The destruction of the iron works at Ashland, noticed in our telegraphic columns, is a serious blow to the iron interests of Eastern Kentucky, to say nothing of the destitution that must follow upon the heels of one thousand operators being deprived of employment, at this season of the year.

LEWIS WHALEY, colored, who lives at Washington, had his trial this morning before Magistrates John L. Grant and M. F. Marsh, under a charge of wilfully and maliciously cutting and wounding Daniel Fitz, colored, with intent to kill. The warrant was dismissed. Whaley was afterwards fined $5 and costs before the first named Magistrate for a breach of the peace.

YESTERDAY afternoon about two o'clock an old sow, after upsetting a lot of coal buckets in front of Bissett, McClannahan & Shea's, walked in the front door of Mr. Charles H. White's residence, and had gotten half way up the staircase to the second story before she was discovered. It was thought she was looking for Dr. Adamson, who lives in the building also.

MR. CHARLES AMMON is not only an excellent photograph artist, but he is exceedingly neat, and his gallery is a model of order and cleanliness. You can imagine how he felt the other day when he discovered that an old sow and nine pigs had walked in off the street and taken possession of the room. We are very certain that he hasn't a very high opinion of a city government that permits such things.

Train Derailed by Robbers.
Special to DAILY BULLETIN.
CINCINNATI, Ohio, November 15th.—A train on the Mexican National Railroad, near Iaredo, Mexico, was derailed by a mixed band of Americans and Mexicans. The object of the robbers was to secure $20,000 known to be in a safe on the train, while in fact there was only $8,000. The brigands were frightened away just as they had begun to rob the passengers.

To the Voters of Maysville.

It had been partially agreed between James Redmond, James Haddon, Robert Browning and myself that we each select an impartial committee of one, to determine our candidacy for the office of Marshal of the city of Maysville, at the January election, 1884, and in addition to the reasons given in my card, published herewith, it became notoriously well known that the gentlemen had selected committeemen who were not only inimical to my interest, but who had publicly declared themselves against me in any state of the case; therefore, knowing that I would be unfit for the position of City Marshal were I to knowingly and willingly "walk into the lion's jaws," I took occasion to serve the following notice on the parties interested:

To Messrs. Redmond, Browning and Haddon—Gentlemen: It has been partially agreed that we each select a man to determine which one of us shall make the race for City Marshal. It was to have been neither a caucus or convention, but a friendly settlement. I now have undeniable proof that Mr. Redmond, one of the parties to the contract, has been declaring upon the streets that the affair was a "caucus," and was being run by my friends, etc.; therefore, to save Mr. Redmond further embarrassment, and myself and friends further annoyance, and myself and friends further embarrassment, I now, before any action has been taken, give notice that I withdraw from the partial agreement entered into, and announce myself a candidate for the position of City Marshal, independent of all cliques, rings, conventions or parties, and will run the race through to the end.

Very respectfully yours,
W. W. WATKINS.

Maysville, Ky., Nov. 12, 1883.
It now seems that the above card warranted the circulation of the report that I had withdrawn from the race for Marshal altogether, and I now take occasion to contradict most emphatically that report, and to assure the people that I have not withdrawn, and will not withdraw until the polls close on the evening of the election, when I am confident, I will be elected City Marshal for the ensuing year.

I am under many obligations to my friends from every part of the city for the encouragement they have given me and support assured, and I promise the good people of Maysville, should I be elected, I shall give all my time and attention to the duties of the office, enforcing the laws without fear, yet in a manner polite and becoming. Your support is cordially solicited.

Yours truly,
W. W. WATKINS.

PERSONALS.

Mr. I. N. Handley, formerly of this city, is a prominent contractor and builder at Carlisle.

The Vanceburg Courier says: Elder A. N. Gilbert, of Maysville Christian Church, has been delivering a series of very interesting and instructive sermons at the Christian Church, in this place, during the week. A more entertaining pulpit orator than Rev. Gilbert has not been heard in Vanceburg for years. He is eloquent and pathetic and possesses a delivery of great evenness and effectiveness.

The river editor of the Vanceburg Courier remarks: Grant Fryer is now a child of the wave, having engaged as one of the beautiful trio who grace the office of the W. P. Thompson. If Grant only had Henry Redden here to give him a few points on handling babies his success as a clerk would be more than solid. Always carry them by the ears Grant, and then you will be out of all danger.

NORTON IRON WORKS BURNED.

One Thousand Men Out of Employment—Loss $250,000.

CINCINNATI, O., November 15.—The Norton Iron Works, at Ashland, Ky., have burned to the ground and one thousand men are out of employment, and there must, in consequence be much destitution among them this winter. The loss altogether is estimated at $250,000.

Steamer Wrecked and Six Persons Lost.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 15.—The steam barge Oakley was wrecked by the storm on Lake Michigan, and the Captain and five of the crew were drowned.

The Ironer Defaulter.

CINCINNATI, O., November 15.—The defalcation of Kirker, the defaulting bank teller, at Ironton, is now said to foot up $27,000.

COUNTY POINTS.

GREENCASTOWN.
This has been an off week for news. Several of our citizens have "killed hogs." The barber shop has been removed for its place.

THE DAILY BULLETIN is largely sought for here every night.
The Carrie Stanley Dramatic Troupe will visit this place soon.

There was a pleasant party given at the residence of Miss Serepta Lusk Thursday night.

Billy Howard, our accommodating bus driver, is voted all along the line as being "too sweet for anything."

Green Gallagher and family will move west next month. The church loses an active member when he goes.

Will Johnson went hunting one day last from the neck as he had it proves that he is a better merchant than a hunter.

Next week we intend to give more news than ever before, so as to run "Cite" and "U. S. Smiling" off the track. So look out for your laurels, boys.

"Dug" and "Wanty" are waging a bitter war against each other on Broadway. While "Chic" is having his opposition at the corner and Erton is trumps on the Bridgeville pike.

Among our many young men here who have fast horses are E. D. Elliott, record 2:30; W. C. Johnson, record not given to the public as yet; Geo. Eron, record 2:40; F. L. Kelley's driving horse, Charley, with a record of four minutes passed all the above horses last week. So Kelly has the check now to ask $35 for him.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla works directly and promptly, to purify and enrich the blood, improve the appetite, strengthen the nerves, and brace up the system. It is in the truest sense an alternative medicine. Every invalid should give it a trial.

Avoid the harsh, irritating griping compounds so often sold as purging medicines, and correct the irregularities of the bowels by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills, which are mild and gentle, yet thorough and searching, in their action.

A Druggist's Story.

Mr. Isaac C. Chapman, Druggist, Newburgh, N. Y. writes us: "I have for the past ten years sold several gross of Dr. William Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I can say of it what I cannot say of any other medicine. I have never heard a customer speak of it but to praise its virtues in the highest manner. I have recommended it in a great many cases of whooping cough, with the happiest effects. I have used it in my own family for many years; in fact, always have a bottle in the medicine closet ready for use."
